4th Workshop on Medical Writing and Editing 7-9 October 1994

The 4th Workshop on Medical Writing and Editing will be held in Singapore from 7 to 9 October 1994. The Workshop is organised by the Annals, Academy of Medicine, Singapore. The teaching faculty will comprise the Editors of the prestigious Annals of Internal Medicine, Drs. Robert and Suzanne Fletcher. The Organising Committee has planned a programme covering the various aspects of medical writing, ranging from the initial stages of manuscript preparation right up to the final touches for submission to the editor. The three-day programme has also been designed to provide a forum for medical writers and editors to learn from the teaching faculty as well as from one another's experience. The programme will include lectures and small group workshops. The Organising Committee plans to formalise the APSEA (Asia-Pacific Scientific Editors Association) during this Workshop. About 150 participants are expected and this will comprise chief editors and representatives of major medical journals and definitely, young doctors wishing to learn to write better. The first day of the Workshop will be directed at young contributors, providing them with hands-on experience in the art of writing. The second and third day will be devoted to an exchange of ideas and transfer of skills between the visiting faculty and the local and regional editorial boards and the formation of the APSEA. Further details can be obtained from the Editorial Assistant, 4th Workshop on Medical Writing and Editing, c/o Annals, Academy of Medicine, Singapore, 16 College Road #01-01, College of Medicine Building, Singapore. 0316, Tel: 2245166; Fax. 2255155.
